Dear Shipping Manager:

Shipping & Receiving freight keeps your business moving forward. Choosing the right carriers is crucial to your success. When it comes to protecting your freight, you can not take any chances. If you ever have a claim, you need to be back on your feet and running fast before the costs of loss, and damaged business relationships starts adding up.

Equally important, it is essential that you are getting the best freight service for every dollar spent. Your Freight Desk - A name you can trust - can help your business reduce freight expenses, improve productivity, and increase revenue.

*Sincerely,
Brad Olinger, Freight Specialist*

How often do you shipping freight?

From time to time...

For the infrequent shipper our service is very simple and beneficial. Call and tell us what you need to have shipped and we prepare a freight quote. If you like the quote we prepare the shipping document and send it to you via email or fax. If any problems arise along the way, we professionally handle them for you. We find for you a quality carrier at a great price.

Weekly...

For frequent shippers, we offer free freight quote software that allows you to instantly search multiple carriers, prepare freight documents, and labels. It also stores address and commodity information for later use.

Daily...

For companies exceeding annual freight expenses of $100K, we take a comprehensive team approach to evaluate your needs, to find cost savings gaps, and to negotiate freight tariffs on your behalf.
